

The Tizzy Reference Document 1.0

Warning! The following contains nudity, cartoonish proportions and softcore kink.

The Golden Rule

Rule number 1 is you can do whatever you want. Chase your aesthetic bliss and remold my character in accordance with your divine will.

Everything in this reldoc is a guideline to convey an essence of Tizziness, but I love to see how a character evolves and focuses after artists diminish or accentuate design details they (dis)like.

If you want to go experimental, change up her design, or do something niche that you'd usually shy away from for commissioner agreeability – go for it. I'm not a stickler for canon. Please have fun.

Palette

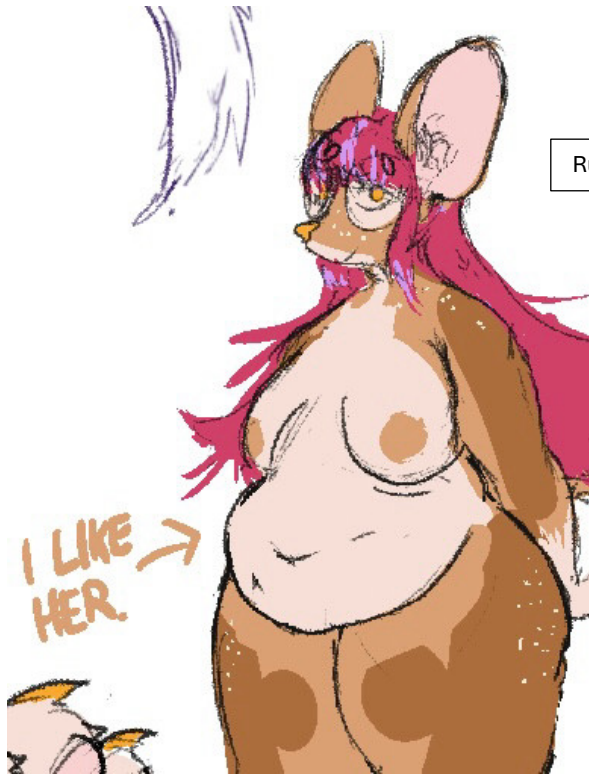

Tizzy doesn't yet have a codified palette for ^ this reason.

Body

- Tizzy is about 5'5" unless she's mouse-sized.
- Tizzy is fat, and below are some references for her standard weight and shape. Her specific proportions can obviously change with your style (feel free to draw her as fatter or merely chubby), but the only rule other than the golden one is she shouldn't be drawn as thin.
- If your style allows for it, Tizzy isn't a stranger to having a (hyper-)pear shape or monobutt.

Accessories

- One of Tizzy's trademarks is her earplugs due to a counter-synergy of her big silly ears and autism. These have no standard design, though the minimal dBuds/Loops style with the cord around the back of the neck is what everyone has drawn so far.
- She does wear glasses. These are generally big round circle frames.
- Goggles? That's part of her work uniform.

Flavor

Tizzy is a mad engineer; smug, confident and magnetic. Domineering, with a flair for the dramatic.

Aesthetics: Ostentatious, metropolitan. Techwear. Fun Sonic-esque future (Eggman is a huge inspiration for this character). Mad science, academia. Hangars and boardrooms. Penthouses and city skylines. This city made us! Karting game maps. Lots of leather jackets and jumpsuits and turtlenecks and colorful glasses.

NSFW Details

If you took the pear/monobutt route earlier, Tizzy is null. Otherwise, she has a large fupa¹ and wears a small cock cage (partially occluded by the fupa).

¹ 'Fat, upper pelvic area', a bulge of fat between the belly and genitals.
